This matter is before the Court following the appointment of counsel to petitioner to assist with his motion pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2255 [DE 89]. Since that time, counsel for petitioner has been permitted access to additional discovery materials, specifically so that a "full and complete response to the Government's motion to dismiss" could be filed [DE 93].

Petitioner is hereby DIRECTED to file within fourteen (14) days of the date of entry of this order either a supplemental response to the government's motion to dismiss or a notice to the Court that supplementation to the response is not warranted or necessary in light of the discovery materials reviewed.
